Remembering and Reflecting on God's Promises

For all the promises of God find their Yes in him.
That is why it is through him that we utter our Amen to God for his glory.

2 Corinthians 1:20 ESV

Icebreaker Question #1

Why is it important that we do not disregard the Old Testament?

Icebreaker Question #2

What difference does it make to you that Jesus is “heir of all things” and that the Father made the universe through Him?

Bonus Question #1

When you think of God's faithfulness, what word comes to mind?

Bonus Question #2

In what ways do we see
God's faithfulness today?

JESUS' WORDS LAST!

STEADFASTNESS

COUNT ON HIM
A friend that sticks closer than a brother.
Proverbs 18:24

CONCLUSION

Heritage of the King

Matthew told his readers about Jesus' human heritage: Jesus is the king promised to bless all nations. The major theme is God's faithfulness, which situates Jesus as the final step in God's fulfillment of His old and new covenant promises. The theme of covenant promises prepares us for the message and mission.

CONCLUSION

The author of Hebrews, by comparison, focused on Jesus' divine heritage. When Jesus finished His earthly ministry, He was honored by the Father, further indicating the importance of accepting His message.

Through these texts, the Holy Spirit directs us to pay attention to Jesus' message. He is God's Son, greater than any angel or prophet. But He is also God himself.
